

This volume is a collection of Dr. Rechcigl's essays, surveys, and personal insights relating to the history and the contributions of Czech and Slovak immigrants in America. The text traces the Bohemian and Moravian pioneers in Colonial America, the Moravian Brethren, the first Slovaks in America, and the Jewish pioneer settlers from the territory of former Czechoslovakia. Rechcigl also emphasizes the Bohemian, Moravian and Slovak contributions to American science and scholarship.

Where Ghosts Walked: Munich's Road to the Third Reich, Campus Wars: The Peace Movement At American State Universities in the Vietnam Era, The Metropolis: Its People, Politics, and Economic Life, Moments in Portugal; or, Land of the laurel, Two Pharaohs: Hatshepsut and Tutmosis III,
