

In a provocative and thoughtful essay, Estonias preeminent poet and cultural critic, Juri alvet, investigates the role of culture in the postmodern world. Against the large background of historical values in western and world culture, Talvet inveighs against monologues and grand narratives launched by Western centers, envisaging instead a cultural symbiosis that would create a new and fertile dialogue between the centers, borders, and peripheries of the world, enrich cultural sensibility, and broaden concern for the Other.

The Soviet Turmoil (Fall of Communism), Wildcat Strikes Again, Picturesque Poland; Malownicza Polska; Malerisches Polen, Pathfinders of the West: being the thrilling story of the adventures of the men who discovered the great Northwest, Radisson, La Verendrye, Lewis and Clark, Heartbreak Hell: Searching for sanity in Boston through a week of tragedy and terror, Aboriginal Dreaming Paths & Trading Routes: The Colonisation of the Australian Economic Landscape (First Nations and the Colonial Encounter) (Paperback) - Common, Guide to the Maelor Way, Education in Tokugawa Japan, Popular Religion in Russia: Double Belief and the Making of an Academic Myth (Routledge Studies in the History of Russia and Eastern Europe),
